

COCOA & CANVAS

A Premium Grenadian Art & Cocoa Experience for Your Guests

FEATURING GRENADIAN ARTIST DAIN JAMES

WELCOME

More Than an Activity—A Meaningful Grenadian Experience

Thank you for taking the time to discover Cocoa & Canvas.

We created Cocoa & Canvas because we believe visitors should experience Grenada not only through its beautiful scenery, but also through its people, creativity, cocoa heritage, and hospitality.

During this professionally hosted experience, guests enjoy traditional cocoa tea, sample Grenadian chocolate, and create a locally inspired painting under the guidance of Grenadian artist and former Visual Arts teacher Dain James.

Our goal is simple: to give your guests a memorable experience and a personal piece of Grenada they can take home—painted by their own hands.

We look forward to exploring how Cocoa & Canvas can become part of your hotel's guest experience.

MEET THE ARTIST

Meet Dain James

ARTIST • EDUCATOR • COCOA EXPERT • STORYTELLER

Dain James is a Grenadian professional artist, experienced Visual Arts educator, and cocoa expert with a passion for sharing Grenada's culture through art, storytelling and authentic local experiences.

His unique background is the inspiration behind Cocoa & Canvas—an experience that brings together the two worlds he knows best: Grenadian art and Grenadian cocoa.

Throughout his teaching career, Dain taught Visual Arts at several Grenadian schools, helping students develop their artistic skills, confidence and appreciation for creative expression.

As a former Chocolate Museum presenter, he also shared the fascinating story of Grenada's cocoa and chocolate heritage with visitors from around the world. His experience as a sip-and-paint instructor allows him to guide participants of all skill levels through an enjoyable and approachable painting experience.

“Guests are not simply attending a painting class. They are experiencing Grenada through an artist who has spent years teaching its art and sharing its cocoa story.”
